Dear Mrs. Miller:

In keeping with your request I have delivered your letter to the young lady in question. I trust that you will hear from her in the near future. She has been taken from the city and placed in a youth camp for the summer.

Allow me to thank you for your interest.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir,

Will you kindly mail or deliver the enclosed to "Betty" the victim of the brutal assault by the four beasts.
You may read the enclosed.
Her name is given by Jim Crisp only as Betty. I have formulated a letter to the "4" - which I plan to send to Jim Crisp for meeting or possibly to jail authorities. I fear they may not deliver it because of its nature. None the less I shall try. Frankly everyone is up in arms over this thing and shame on the State of Florida if it recommends clemency.

I'd hang them with dispatch and I'm not bloodthirsty. At the end I shall wind up praying to God to have mercy on their black souls. From newspaper accounts - 2 of them are drags of poverty. Thank you for your correction. (Mrs.) L. L. Miller
